All applicants are required to submit a background check. Participants must realize they hold a position of trust and responsibility in a youth program, which deals with a sensitive and impressionable period in a child's development. All participants must have patience, understanding and good communication skills with both children and adults. As a volunteer, I understand that there will be NO ALCOHOL, TOBACCO PRODUCTS OR ILLEGAL SUBSTANCES allowed anywhere, by anyone on the practice field or game locations and I will make sure my staff, team parents and fans adhere to these rules as well. Head coaches will comply with the 10 play rule found in the SCJAAF Rule Book, Section C-Coaching Ethics, #11. I agree to comply with all of the bylaws, rules and regulations of the Southern California Junior All American Conference and Apple Valley Rebels Football and Cheer Program, and understand that I am making a full commitment to the program which includes attending all practices, games, and scheduled events.

I understand I can be removed from this organization if the above rules are violated.
